GOSPEL MEDITATION - (John 20:19-31)
ENCOURAGING A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" This greeting from the resurrected Christ must have been a profound one for the disciples. They were living behind locked doors "for fear of the Jews," which really meant for fear of their own lives. They had seen what happened to Jesus and didn't want to face the same fate. Imagine the paralysis of this fear, keeping them locked inside a prison of their own making.

But even the walls and the locks could not keep Jesus out! He came "although the doors were locked" and brought them a message of peace. And then their fear turned to gladness for they "rejoiced when they saw the Lord."

This transformation from sadness to joy, from fear to peace was not just a gift for these first disciples. It is a gift for all of the followers of the Lord, ourselves included! When we are afraid of what might happen in our lives, where we are trapped or paralyzed by the burdens of our own habitual sins, Jesus wants to step in and offer us peace. This is what we celebrate today on this feast of the mercy of Christ. His love, forgiveness and peace--the gift of his mercy--is meant for all of us, weak, sinful, and scared though we may be.

And we who receive this great gift of mercy from the Lord are also called to be merciful to others. We are called to be peacemakers and to forgive others as we have been forgiven. Our celebration of Divine Mercy need not stop at the doors of our own hearts. We can seek ways to be ministers of God's mercy to others, reaching out with the love of God, bringing comfort and consolation to those who need it most.

LPI 4/23/2017

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: On our pulpit there is an eagle, a lion, an angel, and a bull. What do they represent?

A: Each symbol represents a Gospel. These symbols helped people to differentiate the Gospels at a time when most people could not read.

The image of a man or angel represents the Gospel of Matthew and signifies Christ's human nature.

The lion, a symbol of royalty and power, represents the Gospel of Mark and denotes Christ the King.

The ox or calf, the sacrificial victim, represents the Gospel of St. Luke and highlights the priestly character of Christ's mission.

The eagle stands for the Gospel of St. John because his theology is much more developed than the three synoptic Gospels.

Just as an eagle soars above the earth, so John's theology soars above the other Gospels. The symbols for the Synoptics probably come from how each one begins. One of the initial lines of the Gospel of Mark begins: "A voice of one crying out in the desert." In the wilderness you can hear the roar of the lion for miles around. Matthew's Gospel opens with the genealogy of Jesus, and represents Jesus' human roots. The Gospel of Luke opens with the story of Zechariah the high priest who offered a sacrifice of a bull on behalf of the nation.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Breathing is necessary for living. Without air and the ability to breathe, we would die. It is no wonder then that Jesus breathed on the disciples and gave them the Holy Spirit. As our physical breath is essential to physically live, the Holy Spirit is essential to personally and socially live. Jesus shows his friends that God is within them, sustaining them with his gifts and providing them with the fullness of life and love. We take God's role in our lives for granted and we give ourselves more credit than we ought. Much of what we treasure and accomplish every day is due to God's inner presence moving and acting within us, calling us to new life. This is the action of the Holy Spirit.

The next Holy Trinity Cluster (our cluster of CTK, St. John, & St. Mark) Pro-Life meeting will be held on Wed, May 3, at 7:30pm in the library. Always welcoming new members!

Sr. Mary A. McCarthy, President of Mercy High School, Middletown, CT has announced the names of the following students as honor roll students for the 3rd marking period for school year 2016-2017: Old Lyme, Christ the King Parish,
