WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: What does Jesus mean when he talks about taking up our cross?

A: Our journey of faith begins in baptism. When we are faithful to it, we find God's plan for us, his way of allowing us to participate in his saving work, which in turn becomes for us our own salvation. Stated simply, we share in the mission of Jesus each day. We live our life with all of its ups, downs, joys, and sorrows in union with the mission of Jesus. Our work then is holy. It is joined to the cross, God's will for Jesus--the way in which he destroys sin and death and makes eternal life possible. His sacrifice accomplishes what we ourselves cannot do.

To take up the cross, then, means that we share in the mission of Jesus and so embrace the sufferings of the cross. It is our daily life made holy, given a redemptive mission. It is our purpose and goal to unite our life to that of Christ. St. Paul says it best, "If we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection" (Rom 6:5).

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - (Matthew 10: 37-42)
 RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It took five years of marriage before I was ready to have that first baby. Of course, now that I have three children I cannot imagine a life without them. After twenty-five years, I cannot imagine life without my wife as well.

And I know that I am lucky. I know those who have lost children or have been widowed. They couldn't imagine life without their loved ones either.

The tough reality to digest is that we don't own those whom we love. They are all gifts from God, entrusted to each of us as good stewards. If we cling too tightly, we become like the steward who buried his talents in the ground. If we don't care enough, we become like the prodigal son who squandered his gifts on gambling and frivolous living.

But can we love our loved ones too much? I am not sure it is possible to love others too much if it is genuine love. However, if we truly love them, then we will want to lead them to the One that gave them to us in the first place: God. We do that by demonstrating that no one comes before God in our lives, not even our family.

In this world, our loved ones make living meaningful. But this world is not the end. As much as we love them here, our ultimate goal is for them to live eternally with God. May my wife and kids never think I chose them over God, so that they may choose God over all else, as well.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
 How does your commitment to Jesus Christ affect your life? Our faith is not just a private affair but something that influences all of our relationships. Our baptism brings us into a very intimate relationship with God and makes us a brother or a sister to all of God's children. That identity we share colors how we relate to them and the level of responsibility we have to them. If we open ourselves to truly receive our God as Father and those with whom we journey as brothers and sisters, it can profoundly change and affect us.

How has your baptism changed you?

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM
June 21-July 4

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator,
from your provident hand we have received
our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
You have called us as your people and given us
the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God,
and your Son, Jesus Christ.
Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit,
you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world,
bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel
to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us
in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.
Give us the strength of mind and heart
to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened;
give us courage in making our voices heard
on behalf of the rights of your Church
and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father,
a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters
gathered in your Church
in this decisive hour in the history of our nation,
so that, with every trial withstood
and every danger overcome—
for the sake of our children, our grandchildren,
and all who come after us—
this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

"Freedom for Mission"

The 6th Fortnight for Freedom will be observed from June 21
to July 4, 2017

In his letter to the Bishops of the Nation, Archbishop Lori,
who is the chair of the Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty, noted that the
"liturgical calendar celebrates
a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power." We celebrate the faith of these very dynamic
and courageous witnesses
who made the supreme sacrifice for love of Christ and His Church. They are: Saint John Fisher, Saint Thomas
More, Saint John the Baptist,
Saint Peter and Saint Paul,
and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome.
During this period, we pray
that the Holy Spirit will enrich our faith and strengthen our courage to witness to the Lord and the Gospel. In our prayer and reflection, we pray that the Church's mission to serve
not be restricted, in any way,
by government discrimination
or regulations. Go to www.fortnightforfreedom
.org for information,
prayers, & daily
reflections.

IS RCIA FOR YOU?

There are many reasons why you may want to become involved in the RCIA.
Do any of these fit you?

- I have never been baptized.
- I am married to a Catholic and attend Mass, but
just don't know what the next step
may be.
- I have been baptized in another Christian denomination and wish to become Catholic.
- I have been baptized Catholic, but have not received any other sacraments.

Do you know someone who might be interested in
being in full communion with the Catholic Church? Ask, encourage and invite them to this program. The journey begins with one small step! Upcoming session: will be scheduled prior to the Fall. Ask Fr. Joe, or call Bob Staab 860 434 5872 or email Rta1ali1@aol.com for more information.
