St. Frances Xavier Cabrini 1850 - 1917

Frances was born in Italy. She was one of thirteen children and was raised on a farm. When she was a child, she often dreamed of becoming a missionary, particularly a missionary to China. When Frances was 18, she applied for admission to the religious congregation of the Daughters of the Sacred Heart, but was turned down because of her poor health. Instead, a priest asked her to teach at the House of Providence Orphanage in Cadagono, Italy. She taught at the girls' school for six years and drew a community of women in to live the religious way of life. In 1877, she became Mother Cabrini after she finally made her vows and took the religious habit. When the House of Providence Orphanage closed, her bishop asked her to found the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. In its first five years, they established seven homes and a free school and nursery. Frances wanted to continue her mission in China, but Pope Leo XIII urged her to go to the United States, a nation that was becoming flooded with Italian immigrants who needed her help. "Not to the East, but the West," was his advice to her.

On March 31, 1889, Frances arrived in New York City along with six other sisters ready to begin her new journey. She encountered many disappointments and hardships. Frances eventually received permission to found an orphanage in what is now West Park, New York and now known as Saint Cabrini Home.

Filled with a deep trust in God and endowed with a wonderful administrative ability, Frances founded 67 institutions, including orphanages, schools, and hospitals, within 35 years dedicated to caring for the poor, uneducated, sick, abandoned, and especially for the Italian immigrants. Her institutions were spread out in places all over the United States, including New York, Colorado, and Illinois.

Frances was known for being as resourceful as she was prayerful. She was always able to find people to donate their money, time, and support for her institutions.

In 1909, Frances became a naturalized citizen of the United States. Eight years later, on December 22, 1917, Frances passed at the age of 67.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was beatified on November 13, 1938, and canonized on July 7, 1946, making her the first United States citizen to be canonized. Her feast day is November 13 and she is the patron saint of immigrants.

337 miles over 5 days. The ride is a "virtual trip" across Haiti, visiting CT parishes and schools "twinning" with parishes, orphanages, and schools in Haiti. The ride raises awareness and funds for Outreach to Haiti, serving Kris Wa -Christ the King- in Port-au-Prince.

Celebrating the Recent Beatification of Fr. McGivney!

St. Pio, our cluster parish across the river, celebrates with a banner in front of St. John Church in Old Saybrook.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

The Saint John School Foundation has been an approved 501 (c)3 Charitable Trust since 2014. Its mission is to support our school with funds for tuition aid and periodic special projects.

In this challenging time of COVID-19, our children must have all the tools possible to learn in a variety of possible settings - in the classroom, with distance learning, or a hybrid combination of both. To this end, Saint John School provided Chromebooks for every student, an expense certainly not planned in this year's school budget.

Through the generosity of donors, the Foundation supported Saint John students by funding $14,000 toward purchasing Chromebooks, in addition to the annual $10,000 tuition aid this school year. THANK YOU to all our donors who made this exceptional support possible!

How can YOU invest in Catholic education? Details are at the FOUNDATION TAB at the bottom of the Saint Pio Parish home page and in a brochure at the CTK parish office window. No donation is too small; every dollar grows the Trust. SEND checks directly to St. John School, payable to the St. John School Charitable Foundation Trust.

Gratefully, in thanksgiving,
Mother Elaine, SJS Foundation Advisory Board, and SJS students

Second Annual Christ Is Alive! Essay Contest

Over $10,000 in prizes will be awarded! But more importantly, students have a chance to proclaim the Good News: Christ Is Alive! Visit comcenter.com/christisalive for contest details and entry forms.
