WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

A: Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - Matthew 11:25-30

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Is there anyone to whom this doesn't apply? Don't we all have to labor at something, whether it be work, school, relationships, household affairs, or personal, emotional, or mental battles? Aren't we all burdened in some way at some time?

Jesus offers us powerful words of consolation in today's Gospel. He promises us rest. He calls all of us to himself, along with the baggage and burdens that we carry, and assures us that we will find relief. Thank God! What a gift for our tired, weary souls.

The strange part about the passage, however, is when Jesus suggests that in order to find this wonderful rest, we have to take a "yoke" upon our shoulders. This of course is a reference to the animal harness of old that would join two oxen together to share the weight of the load they carried. He tells us, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me... For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." Somehow, joining Jesus in his work is supposed to bring us rest! Contrary to the standard belief that NOT working is the source of relief, Jesus urges us to join him in his mission in order to find peace. But what is this mission? To be "meek and humble of heart." Jesus' work is to do whatever God the Father wants him to do. As he says elsewhere, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work" (Jn 4:34). So, it seems that if we also humbly submit to doing God's work--with Jesus right alongside us as our partner in the task--we will "find rest" for ourselves. So as we labor through the trials of the day, may we bear this in mind, and pray that we may handle them according to the will of God.

CT Catholic Public Affairs Network

This network allows us as parishioners to receive newsletters and legislative email alerts on important state and federal legislation, and provides a means for parish members to easily contact their elected officials by email.

The more members the Connecticut Catholic Legislative network enrolls will directly increase the strength of the Catholic voice in the public policy arena.

Please sign-up online at www.ctcatholicpac.org. All information is confidential and is not shared with any other organization.

Leave a Legacy

Summer is a wonderful time to remind parishioners in the Diocese about the value of charitable estate planning. Some people choose to mark their legacy by requesting gifts made in memoriam to their parish, school, ministry or the Diocese in lieu of flowers upon their passing. Others include a bequest in their Will to their favorite Catholic organization. Still others are interested in establishing an endowment with the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Norwich to benefit a Diocesan organization. Most recently, through his Estate, Reverend Thomas W. Ahern who served our Diocese for over 41 years, established two endowments within the Catholic Foundation, one to benefit our seminarians and the other, the hungry poor of our Diocese. We are blessed that Father Ahern's generosity will forever allow him to help many in our Diocese. If you are interested in learning more about how you can leave your legacy and support all the good works that the Church is involved in, please contact Mary Ellen Mahoney, Development Manager, at (860) 886-1928 or mahoney@norwichdiocese.net.

IS RCIA FOR YOU?

There are many reasons why you may want to become involved in the RCIA. Do any of these fit you?

- I have never been baptized.
- I am married to a Catholic and attend Mass, but just don't know what the next step may be.
- I have been baptized in another Christian denomination and wish to become Catholic.
- I have been baptized Catholic, but have not received any other sacraments.

Do you know someone who might be interested in being in full communion with the Catholic Church? Ask, encourage and invite them to this program. The journey begins with one small step! Upcoming session: will be scheduled prior to the Fall. Ask Fr. Joe, or call Bob Staab 860 434 5872 or email Rta1ali1@aol.com for more information.

It's a great time to start, or continue, praying a family rosary.

Evan William Eckert, son of Michael and Brittany was baptized here on Sunday July 8, 2017 after the 10:30am mass. We joyfully welcome him to our Christ the King family of God. Alleluia!

Congratulations to Joshua Morgan and Amanda Rowe who were united here in Holy Matrimony on July 8, 2017. May God richly bless your marriage sacrament!

The Ancient Order of Hibernians (AOH), and the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians (LAOH), are announcing a call for new members. The AOH and LAOH are Catholic organization whose mission is to promote Irish Culture, Community, and Christian Charity. The AOH evolved from a need in the early sixteen century to protect the lives of priests who risked immediate death to keep the Catholic Faith alive in occupied Ireland after the reign of England's King Henry VIII.

Any male or females of Irish heritage who are practicing Catholic are welcome to join the respective organizations. For more information, on joining the AOH, please contact Rick Connell at 860-867-7866 or email him at rconnellsr@gmail.com. For information on joining the LAOH, please contact Anne Tortora at 860-334-9104 or email her

The Journey of the Mind into God

The Spiritual Care Department at Lawrence + Memorial Hospital

... is in need of volunteer Eucharistic Ministers to administer Holy Communion to hospital patients on Sundays. Eucharistic Ministers are scheduled once a month and work with one or two other ministers; we will provide training in hospital policy and procedure. If you would like to offer your hands to serve by bringing patients the body and blood of Christ, please contact the Spiritual Care office at: 860-442-0711 x 2305. Eucharistic Ministry brings comfort to the sick and praise to the Lord who said: "Do this in remembrance of Me" (Luke 22:19).

Defending Our Religious Liberty July 9, 2017

Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, Chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty, issued a statement encouraging the broadening of the exemption from the HHS mandate.

"If issued, these regulations would appropriately broaden the existing exemption to a wider range of stakeholders with religious or moral objections to the mandated coverage—not just houses of worship. This not only would eliminate an unwarranted governmental division of our religious community 'between our houses of worship and our great ministries of service to our neighbors,' but would also lift the government-imposed burden on our ministries 'to violate their own teachings within their very own institutions...Relief like this is years overdue and would be most welcomed.'
