OUR PARISH SUPPORT

July 16, 2017 $ 8,998.29
Thank you for your continued generosity!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

A: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story? Their names are found in an apocryphal gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden, gospels consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. The fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life. Long before Grandparents' Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the Savior's human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation--God becoming human!

Gospel Meditation (Matthew 13: 24-43)

"The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil." This is not a pretty picture. Jesus shares a parable in today's Gospel that reminds us of a truth we would rather forget: evil is real, and the devil is at work. The bountiful harvest of our faith is something that Satan wants to destroy. And he has a host of diabolical tactics to help him carry out his wicked plans. But there is one strategy in particular that we must be on guard against.

As the French poet Charles Baudelaire put it, "The devil's finest trick is to persuade you that he does not exist." Sneaky as it may be, this approach is effective! And, unfortunately, the attitude of our modern era is very conducive to buying the lie. Too often we dismiss the idea of the invisible spiritual reality of angels and demons. It doesn't seem "scientific" enough for us because it can't be seen or "proven." But neither can our faith! We believe in a host of invisible realities starting with God himself. We should not be fooled into thinking that the devil is a make-believe cartoon character with red horns and a pitchfork on his shoulder. Alas, no. As the "Catechism of the Catholic Church" reminds us, "Scripture witnesses to the disastrous influence of the one Jesus calls 'a murderer from the beginning'" (CCC 394) and, as we read in the Bible, "Indeed, the Son of God was revealed to destroy the works of the Devil" (1 Jn 3:8). This is not pretend, and so it must be taken seriously. But so too, the reality of Satan must be situated within the broader context of God's supreme power. The devil "cannot prevent the building up of God's reign" (CCC 395). The influence of evil can never defeat the power of our faith, unless we let it do so.

Leave a Legacy

Summer is a wonderful time to think about the value of charitable estate planning in our Diocese. Some people choose to mark their legacy by requesting gifts made in memoriam to their parish, school, ministry or the Diocese in lieu of flowers upon their passing. Others include a bequest in their Will to their favorite Catholic organization. Still others are interested in establishing an endowment with the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Norwich to benefit a Diocesan organization. Most recently, through his Estate, Reverend Thomas W. Ahern who served our Diocese for over 41 years, established two endowments within the Catholic Foundation, one to benefit our seminarians and the other, the hungry poor of our Diocese. We are blessed that Father Ahern's generosity will forever allow him to help many in our Diocese. If you are interested in learning more about how you can leave your legacy and support all the good works that the Church is involved in, please contact Mary Ellen Mahoney, Development Manager, 860-886-1928 memahoney@norwichdiocese.net

IS RCIA FOR YOU?

There are many reasons why you may want to become involved in the RCIA. Do any of these fit you?

- I have never been baptized.
- I am married to a Catholic and attend Mass, but just don't know what the next step may be.
- I have been baptized in another Christian denomination and wish to become Catholic.
- I have been baptized Catholic, but have not received any other sacraments.

Do you know someone who might be interested in being in full communion with the Catholic Church? Ask, encourage and invite them to this program. The journey begins with one small step! Upcoming session: will be scheduled prior to the Fall. Ask Fr. Joe, or call Bob Staab 860 434 5872 or email Rta1alil@aol.com.

Harvest Fun Day is... Sat, Sept 16, 2017!

The first planning meeting is Wed, July 26th at 7pm.

Please attend if you are interested in helping or simply curious and want to know more about the fair. The festival will be co-chaired this year by Mrs. Rosa Wohlmuth. We are looking for volunteers to help plan and run a GREAT event! Contact Rosa: ctkharvestfestival@gmail.com.

Are you interested in volunteering as an Altar Server or an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist?

We are in need of Altar Servers at all masses: Sat. Vigil at 5pm, Sun. 8am and 10:30am.

We are in need of Eucharistic Ministers at the Sat. Vigil at 5pm and Sun. at 10:30am.

This is a time commitment of one or two masses per month (or more, if you like!). Please consider giving a little service to your church. Fr. Joe will provide training on two dates:

July 22-23: Training for Eucharistic Ministers after all masses

Aug. 5 - 6: Training for Altar Servers after all masses

Call the office, 434-1669, for more information or just stay for a brief training (30min) after mass on the dates listed.

THANK YOU ALL... for supporting the Annual Holy Trinity Pro-Life Bake Sale! The funds raised, totaling $755, will help support local students attend the annual March for Life, support women's pregnancy resource centers, and provide pro-life information for the parish. Also, we would like to thank all the bakers, the organizers, the set up and helpers at all the Masses. Thank You! ... Life is Sweet!
