WHY DO WE DO THAT? - Catholic Traditions Explained

Q: In our church, on the feast of Epiphany, we write the initials C+M+B over the doorway, what does this stand for or mean?

A: Epiphany, like Christmas, is celebrated in various ways by different nationalities and cultures. The customs and traditions surrounding these days give them a distinct feel and meaning. In many Slavic traditions, Epiphany is observed by marking the year on the mantle of the entrance to a room or house. In the center of the year are the initials of the traditional names of the three Wise Men: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. An alternative explanation asserts that the initials stand for the Latin "Christus Mansionem Benedicat," "Christ bless this house." Regardless of the interpretation, the purpose is to ask God's blessing on the home, marking it as though the Wise Men had come and found therein the Christ Child. It also recalls the marking of the doorways in Egypt with the blood of the lamb so that the angel of death would pass over. God's blessing comes to each home as a source of protection and grace.

What Is Your Resolution This Year?

Diets, exercise, less sweets, more travel...

What about spiritual resolutions?

8 NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

for Catholics

- 1) Live Our Lady's Messages at Fatima.
2017 marks the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of Fatima. In this most prophetic of all Marian apparitions, Our Lady gave us warnings and made urgent pleas for reform and to pray her rosary daily.
- 2) Make More Time For Spiritual Reading
Your best bet is to stick to the Saints for their practical wisdom and guidance.
- 3) Make Good Stewardship A Lifestyle
We live in a world of materialism and greed. Let's keep in mind that we are called to be good stewards of the gifts God has given us. Spend your time, talents and treasures for God.
- 4) Share Your Catholic Faith
You don't have to be obnoxious or overbearing about your faith, just focus on doing simple things like being joyful in your walk with Christ or inviting people to come to Mass with you.
- 5) Bring Back Regular Penance
Many do not know that the Fridays outside of Lent are also days of abstinence and fasting. What penitential practice can you do each Friday in 2017?
- 6) Go An Extra Day To Mass
Mass is not only the source and summit of our faith. it is the source and summit of our very life. For 2017, think of ways you can arrange your schedule and activities so that you can make it to Mass more often.
- 7) Pray The Rosary
No Catholic list of resolutions would be complete without a daily rosary added in. If you already pray the rosary daily, that is great. You can ask someone to join you in the rosary.
- 8) Pick A New Saint Buddy
Why not begin the tradition of walking along your pilgrimage of faith with a different Catholic saint each year? There are so many of them with unique graces to bestow. Pray about your New Year and the goals you have for your life and see if there is a specific saint that can help you.

Start Anew

Not that long ago Catholics abstained from meat every Friday of the year. That rule changed in 1966 when U.S. Catholic bishops decided that economic and dietary times had changed so much that it was no longer a great sacrifice to have a meatless meal. The bishops said it was OK to go ahead and eat meat on Friday, but it still was important to do something sacrificial on Fridays as a way of keeping sacred the day of the week on which Christ died. Catholics heard the first part. But did we hear the part about volunteering, or fasting for peace, or visiting the sick every Friday? What practices would help you keep the spirit of Friday? Can you start today?

O COME LET US ADORE HIM
